Interested in learning about Sacred Ground and the work of racial reconciliation?

Join special event online with Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe; Sept. 2, 1-2:30pm
Episcopalians and all interfaith partners are invited to join a fall program year launch event for Sacred Ground, the church's 11-part film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Sacred Ground circles have grown exponentially in dioceses across the country since the program began in 2019.

Join on Zoom for a virtual conversation with Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe about the spiritual dimension of Sacred Ground. Hear what makes the program compelling and why the series continues to challenge participants to do the deep work of racial healing, reconciliation, and justice—in their own lives, within their ministries, and in society. Use this link to register for the Zoom Event: Fall Program Launch Webinar 2025 -Formstack AND if you decide you want to register for a Sacred Ground circle – there may still be time to join one with folks in the dioceses of Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine. To learn more about our Tri-Diocesan Sacred Ground circles contact Franci Farnsworth. There may still be time to register and join a circle. Register online.
